

UTSA Summer Band Institute

Camp Handbook

University Summer Music Camps have existed for many years, but this may be the first time your son or daughter will be attending a camp. We are committed to making your child's camp experience a safe, exciting, and educational experience, and we hope that we can count on you to help us make that happen. We encourage you to become an active participant in your child's preparation for camp and we are always happy to assist you with any questions you might have.

This handbook is your starting point for preparing your student for camp. It is made especially with the questions and concerns of day-campers in mind. It is also a resource for campers while they are attending camp, so please take the time to read it carefully.

Thank you for choosing the UTSA Summer Music Camps for 2018 and we look forward to seeing you this summer!

Sincerely,

If you do not attend check-in, you will need to stop by the administration office before your first rehearsal to complete the administrative portion of check-in and to perform a placement audition.

CHECK-IN PARKING:

Parking is available in all UTSA lots. We recommend using the UTSA Bauerle Lot located at the bottom of the Arts Building. Parking will be free on Sunday in any unmarked/faculty B/or faculty A spot.

CHECKING-IN WITHOUT A PARENT/GUARDIAN PRESENT (High School Only):

For high school campers who will be coming to check-in without a parent, we suggest that parents confirm the following:

That the camp balance has been paid in full.

That there are no questions about any medical conditions or medications.

No middle school campers will be permitted to check-in without a parent/guardian.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT CHECK-IN:

Administrative check-in takes place in the UTSA MUSIC BUILDING.

At check-in you will:

#1: Pick up your camp welcome packet.

This will include your camp ID, your daily activities schedule, and a pencil.

#2: Confirm with the camp directors that you are paid in full.

If you have a balance it must be paid at this time. No camper may start camp without payment in full.

#7: Store your instrument (if needed – typically larger instruments)

AFTER CHECK-IN:

If you are a commuting camper, you may leave for the day following camp check-in. Commuting campers will not need to return to UTSA until the start of camp on Monday. All residential campers will need to move into their dormitories following their auditions and attend the required meeting Sunday evening at 7:00pm in the UTSA Recital Hall.

PERSONAL VEHICLES:

Day-campers are not permitted to transport overnight-campers in their personal vehicles. Any overnight camper who travels with a day camper in the day-camper's car for any reason may be dismissed from camp.

Any camper who transports another camper(s) in their personal vehicle does so at their own risk and is responsible for anything that happens to the other campers while in their car.

PRIVATE LESSONS:

This camp offers students the option to sign up for private lessons at an additional cost of $25.00 per 30 - minute lesson. All lessons are organized and paid for in full at camp check-in. Payments for lessons are payable by cash or check only and checks must be made payable directly to the lesson instructor.

The lesson(s) will typically be scheduled during ensemble rehearsals and recreational periods as needed; no lessons are scheduled outside of the 8am-6pm class day. Lessons will be with a UTSA Music Faculty member or outstanding alumni. Lessons are scheduled with a teacher based on availability.

Registration for private lessons will take place at camp check-in on Sunday, June 17th.

CAMP NECESSITIES

All Campers, Day and Overnight, should consider the following:

CLOTHING ITEMS:

Casual clothes to wear to classes, rehearsals, and recreation activities Tennis shoes and other comfortable footwear*

*SAFETY NOTE - though flip-flops may be comfortable summer footwear, they can often be dangerous. When the campus sidewalks get wet after a rainstorm they are extremely slick. We have brought numerous campers to the health center because they hurt themselves when their flip-flops hydroplaned on the sidewalk. There are also a lot of stairs in the buildings and on campus. Flip Flops easily get caught on the edge and suddenly you're face planting into the stairs. We encourage you to consider bringing footwear that won't land you in the hospital.

Rain jacket and/or umbrella (just in case)

Sweater or sweatshirt (rehearsal rooms can get very chilly)

Hat, sun-visor, sunglasses,

Bathing Suit

PERFORMANCE DRESS - HIGH SCHOOL:

Girls: Black Skirt or Pants (skirts must be below the knee), White Blouse; Black Shoes; Stockings

Boys: Black Trousers; White Dress Shirt; Black Bow-Tie or standard Tie; Black Shoes; Black Socks.

PERFORMANCE DRESS - MIDDLE SCHOOL:

All students will wear their camp t-shirts and choice of bottom. Students may wear shorts or pants of any color.

INSTRUMENTS:

All students should bring their own personal instrument for use throughout the duration of the camp. The only exception to this is percussionists.

Percussionists should bring the following:

Sticks & Mallets (snare, timpani & marimba)

Stick bag

Practice pads

UTSA does not have instruments available for camper use. If you do not own your instrument, we suggest contacting your school music director and arrange to use a school instrument during your camp. If you have extenuating circumstances, which may prevent you from bringing your instrument to camp, please contact the camp office.

AUDITIONS

YOUR PLACEMENT AUDITION:

There will be a placement audition at camp check-in to determine your band assignment. You will receive a personalized schedule before your first rehearsal that will include your assignment and will give you the times and locations of all of your rehearsals.

Campers should prepare the following for the audition:

Winds:

- Two major scales of your choice
- Two solo excerpts, etudes or short pieces:
 - One piece should be slower, lyrical
 - One piece should be faster and more technically demanding

Percussionists:

- A snare piece
- A mallet piece

A NOTE ABOUT ENSEMBLE PLACEMENT: Once band assignments have been made they will not be changed. The students at our camps come from a variety of backgrounds and musical experiences, and therefore, the band assignment and seating you receive at camp may not be what you are used to back home. This can be a shock to some campers who are used to always being placed at the top. We encourage campers to prepare for the placement audition and then to trust the decisions of the UTSA educators to place them in the appropriate ensemble. Our instructors want all campers to get the most out of their camp experience and we stand behind the decisions they make. Changes will NOT be made to ensemble and/or seating assignments after they have been completed.

THE AUDITION PROCESS:

The audition process for the UTSA Summer Band Institute is designed to be as stress-free as possible. That's why we encourage all of our participants to audition on material that they are comfortable with. There is no need to go out and learn material beyond the individual's ability in an effort to impress the judges.

However, all campers should take the process seriously. Auditioning for a summer music program is the perfect opportunity to enhance the individual's performance skills and serves as beneficial experience for when the student auditions back at their respective programs, region band, or any other audition based program in which the camper may participate.

WHO JUDGES THE AUDITION?:

A mixture of UTSA faculty and outstanding UTSA alumni will serve as both our judges and our master class instructors. All of our judges are master performers on their assigned instruments and serve as UTSA private instruction faculty, performers in the San Antonio Symphony, the San Antonio Wind Symphony, other prestigious ensembles, and local middle school and high school educators. We have sincere trust in their ability to appropriately assign our participating campers.

BAND PLACEMENTS:

We operate our camp differently than what many campers (and their guardians) may be used to. While many campers may be used to being placed in an "Honor Band", "Wind Ensemble" or "Top Band", we do not follow that same system when it comes to assigning our ensembles. We simply place our campers in the Orange band or Blue band and the auditions determine which part they play on each particular piece. This demonstrates a rotational part system that is used by nearly all professional and college ensembles.

At the UTSA Summer Band Institute, our ensembles are constructed in a manner that allows musicians of all calibers to experience music that they may not typically experience in their respective programs back home. This includes music that can be above or below their respective playing ability. By splitting our ensembles into equal caliber groups, we are able to program music that allows our stronger players to model their strong musical skills while also challenging our younger or less developed musicians. Again, there is no technical ability difference between our Orange and Blue ensembles.

At the middle school level, all rising 8th and 9th graders will be placed in either our orange band or blue band. The placements will be split evenly based upon audition results.

WHITE BAND (MIDDLE SCHOOL ONLY):

Our white band is designed primarily for 6th grade students who will be 7th grade band students in the fall following the camp. The white band is typically taught by a middle school band director who has proven to be outstanding in terms of how they develop their respective programs.

The white band will focus heavily on preparing our campers to not only exhibit a fantastic musical performance come concert day, but also serve to foster an environment in which the individuals receive the proper care and attention towards enhancing fundamentals of musical rehearsal and performance.

We strongly believe that those young performers seated in the white band will be better equipped to serve as role model musicians upon returning to their respective programs. Those young students who exhibit mature musicianship in their audition will be considered for one of the more advanced orange or blue groups.

WHY USE THIS SYSTEM?:

Too often, we are quick to categorize music as easy or hard. We have been commonly led into thinking that “harder” music is better and that “easier” music is boring. Our mission at the UTSA Summer Band Institute is to help guide our campers into developing a respect for all types of music. By constructing ensembles that are equal, we are able to program both “challenging” music and “easy” music. Why? Because that’s how professional musicians operate in the real world! Professional musicians are not always playing the hardest, most challenging music. The real world offers a healthy balance of different levels of repertoire for even the most advanced musicians because there is tremendous value to be found in all types of music. If we can expose our campers to a wide variety of repertoire, we can hopefully inspire them to be consumers of many musical masterpieces.

PREPARING FOR LIFE AT CAMP

There are so many things to think about when preparing for your time at camp. This section is designed to help you understand what to expect at camp and guide you as you make your camp plans. In addition, we want you to understand what we expect of each camper during your time with us:

We expect our campers to come prepared daily to practice, play, and perform. We expect our campers to uphold the standards of our community of camp musicians; helping to maintain a safe and welcoming environment, and helping to foster positive relationships between fellow campers. Bullying, substance abuse, theft, and other negative behaviors will not be tolerated. Most of all - WE EXPECT OUR CAMPERS TO LEARN AND HAVE FUN!!!

CELL PHONE POLICY:

Campers are allowed to have cell phones for use during free time, but they must be TURNED OFF COMPLETELY and PUT AWAY OUT OF SIGHT during all workshops, rehearsals and performances. Cell phones that are turned on, visible and/or used during workshops, rehearsals or performances may be confiscated according to the following policy:

First Offense: The cell phone will be confiscated for a period of 24 hours.

Second Offense: The cell phone or device will be confiscated for the duration camp. The item will be returned to the camper at check-out.

If a campers cell phone is confiscated, parents will still be able to contact the camper either through the Camp Office or the Dormitory Office.

DINING HALL & MEALS:

Lunch will be provided each day for all campers at the UTSA Cafeteria. Breakfast and dinner will be provided to overnight campers. Due to health regulations, no outside food is permitted inside the cafeteria.

DRESS CODE:

Dress for all camp activities is casual (shorts, t-shirts, jeans) but should be appropriate for classroom instruction. Revealing clothing is not permitted and it is at the discretion of the camp staff to require campers to change or cover up if an outfit is deemed inappropriate.

Swimwear is permitted for recreational activities only. Again, it is at the discretion of the camp staff to require campers to change or cover up if a swimsuit is deemed inappropriate. Please use your best judgement.

INSTRUMENT STORAGE:

Campers who play oversized instruments will be provided with a secure room to lock up their instruments rather than a locker. This room will be in the UTSA Music Building. Campers who play oversized instruments will be directed to the storage location during check-in.

MERCHANDISE:

Concert Recordings will be made available for each of the performing ensembles. These CD's will be for sale during camp registration as well as before and after the groups performances on Saturday, June 23th.

MONEY:

Campers are encouraged to bring a few extra dollars if they wish to purchase vending machine items throughout the day.

MUSIC:

The music to be performed at camp will be provided to campers. Campers should also bring additional music with them to use during private practice time or during optional private lessons.

DAILY DROP-OFF & PICKUP:

Please review the camp schedule you are given at check-in closely to be sure that you have the correct drop-off and pick-up times for your camp. When dropping-off and picking-up a day camper each day, please do so at the Bauerle Lot.

AM DROP-OFF:

Students are to be dropped at the foot of the hill leading up to the Music Building. This is in the Bauerle Lot. They will need to walk directly to the second floor of the music building and check in at the camp administrative office. Commuting students will need to check-in every morning!

PM PICK-UP:

PM pick-up can get a bit hectic - especially if it rains. But we do our best to get your children out to your car as quickly and efficiently as possible. Please be patient and stay in your car. We will walk your child out to meet you. Pick-up will take place at the Bauerle Lot.

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Campers will receive an activity schedule on check-in day. Activities will be scheduled for each evening and will include a variety of recreational activities. Activities are organized by the camp staff and may include things like sports, movie nights, ice cream socials, and more. All recreational activities are on-campus, with the exception of the Fiesta Texas trip. For those not attending Fiesta Texas, alternate activities will be offered on the UTSA Campus with camp supervision. For the Fiesta Texas trip, campers will be transported using charter buses. All activities, both on-campus and off, are monitored by our camp staff at all times.

Instructions for day-campers participating in recreation activities:

To participate in one of the optional activities that have a fee, day-campers need to sign-up and pay for the activity at the Camp Desk in the UTSA Music Building or at the Camp Office in the Dormitories during lunch time.

Getting to and from a recreation activity:

For the Fiesta Texas Trip, Parents may NOT drive day-campers directly to the event. For accountability purposes we ask that they travel to and from the event with our staff. Parents can pick up day-campers from the UTSA Music Building at the conclusion of the event. No campers will be released from the event location - they can only be picked up once campers return to campus.

ATTENDANCE AND CAMPER SIGN-OUT

Attendance at all camp events, rehearsals, and performances (and evening events for overnight campers) is mandatory for all campers. Attendance will be taken at the start of each rehearsal, every day. If your child cannot attend camp on a particular day, or if you need to take them out of camp for a portion of the day, please email us at utsasbi@gmail.com to let us know they will be absent.

Campers are only permitted to leave camp as follows:

Parents may give written permission for an adult over the age of 21 to sign-out their child by providing written notice the morning of. This written notice should be turned in to the camp office located in the lobby of the Music Building. You may also email us in advance at utsasbi@gmail.com.

CAMP CHECK-OUT:

Camp check-out takes place after the final performance. Once your concert is over, you are dismissed, but are encouraged to stay to watch the other performances. There is no official check-out process that day campers need to follow post-concert. We will have camp counselors available in the lobby if you need any assistance.

PARENT RESOURCES

We want camp to be an exciting summer experience for all of our campers, and we're sure that you will find that our counselors and instructors will do everything possible to make that happen. We hope that this section will provide some answers and guidance for you as a parent as you prepare to send your child to UTSA for this new experience.

HOMESICKNESS:

Adjusting to camp can be overwhelming for some students even when camp is in your hometown. Usually homesickness manifests within the first 24-36 hours, and common phrases to listen for are: "I just don't like camp"; "The music is too easy and I've already played this piece at school"; "I'm not making any friends" or "I'm bored." Most of the time these are usually just warning signs that the student is having trouble adjusting to their new environment. Once they have the chance to overcome these anxieties, most campers do a complete 360 and can't stop talking about next year.

If you feel that your child might be having trouble adjusting, encourage them to hang in there and then give us a call so that we can do all we can to help them feel comfortable, involved and happy. Our staff has handled these situations before and have a variety of tools and methods at their disposal to get your child interacting with new friends, engaging in class, and on the path to having a great time.

To help your child prepare in the months before camp starts, you may wish to try the following techniques which are endorsed by the American Camp Association:

1. Don't make a "pick-up deal."

Promising "If you're not having fun I'll come and get you" undermines children's confidence and dramatically intensifies homesickness. Instead, normalize their anxiety and talk positively about camp.

2. Spend practice time away from home.

Nothing builds confidence and teaches a child how to cope with time away from home better than (you guessed it) time away from home. That weekend at your folks' house will do wonders for their adjustment.

3. Double-check the check-in and check-out time for your camp.

Start camp off on a smooth note by arriving on time and on the right day. Use a wall calendar in the months prior to check-in day to make an exciting countdown to the big day.

TROUBLE IN PARADISE:

It happens...phones go missing, money gets lost, new friends can say mean things. If your son or daughter calls you with a problem, remind them that the counselors should be their first stop for assistance - there is always someone available in the Camp Office to help. Our staff will do our best to resolve the problem as quickly as possible.

But what happens when kids don't know when to ask for help? Our counselors will always do their best to try to identify problems before they happen, but they are not mind-readers. Remind your son or daughter that they need to peak up if something isn't right or if they are unhappy.

It is equally important that they need to speak up if they aren't feeling well. Our camp counselors are not medical professionals and can not make medical decisions on behalf of the students. If you son or daughter has an ongoing medical condition, please alert us at check-in and make sure that your child knows to alert an adult immediately if they are experiencing any signs or symptoms.
